

VOLUN
TARI
G
NESS
FREI
WILLIGKEIT

RACE AND HEALTH IN AMERICAN HISTORY

Workshop

The workshop explores intersections of citizenship, race, and health in the United States from the mid-nineteenth century to the early twentieth century.

11 June 2026

4:00 - 7:30 pm

Keynote Sessions & Discussion

ANDREA STONE (Smith College)

Well-being in 19th-century Black
US-Literature

SAMUEL K. ROBERTS Jr. (Columbia U)

Governing Addiction: Race-Substance
Stigma and the Politics of Expertise

Venue: Carl-von-Ossietsky-Forum at the Staats- und Universitätsbibliothek
Hamburg (Main Library)

Contact: fg.freiwilligkeit@uni-erfurt.de

12 June 2026

9:00 am - 1:00 pm

Workshop on Recent Research Perspectives

Please register for the workshop on Friday!

PAULINE FISCHER (U Erfurt)

Self-Care and Health in the U.S. around
1865: Discourses and Practices

PAUL SKÄBE (U Hamburg)

Racialized Epidemiologies: Black Americans and the 1918 Great Influenza Pandemic

ALEXANDER OBERMÜLLER (UK Tübingen)

Race and Emergency Medicine in Late
Nineteenth Century Philadelphia

DFG-Forschungsgruppe Freiwilligkeit
Erfurt · Jena · Oldenburg

Prof. f. Nordam. Geschichte & Public History
FB Geschichte · AB Globalgeschichte · U Hamburg

Funded by DFG Deutsche
Forschungsgemeinschaft
German Research Foundation

STAATS- UND UNIVERSITÄTS-BIBLIOTHEK
HAMBURG
CARL VON OSSIETZKY

U+H
Universität Hamburg
DER FORSCHUNG | DER LEHRE | DER BILDUNG

UNIVERSITÄT ERFURT
Philosophische
Fakultät